The financial advice process

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different.

Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we provide advice which is in your best interests.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a Statement of Advice which you can take away and read.

The SoA will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

We will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement for any products we recommend other than securities. This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and the products we recommend.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email. In some cases, we may require you to provide signed instructions.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products. If we provide further advice it will be documented in a Record of Advice which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.

Fees

Initial Fees & Annual Fees

Our initial advice fees include meeting with you, the time we take to determine our advice and the production of the SoA. They will be based on the scope and complexity of advice provided to you. We will agree the fee with you before providing you with advice.

Our annual fees depend on the services that we provide to you. They are an agreed fixed fee and they are paid monthly. Our services and fees will be set out in an agreement with you.

One-Off Fees

In limited circumstances, we may provide oneoff services and charge a fee at an hourly rate. This will be discussed with you prior to engagement.

Commissions

We work to avoid conflicts of interest including the receipt of commissions. Where we receive commissions, we will either offset the commission against your fees or (in the case of small amounts) donate the commission to charity. We do not retain any commissions.

This approach allows us to meet the Corporations act definition of independence. As a result, we proudly call ourselves independent.

Other Benefits

We may receive other benefits from product providers such as training, meals and entertainment. Details of any benefits received above $100 will be maintained on a register which is available to you on request.

Adviser Remuneration

Cameron Howlett, Chris Haggart and Shane Nicholas are the owners of Independent Wealth Partners and are remunerated through the profits of the practice.

The other Authorised Representatives are employees of the practice and are paid a salary. They may also receive a bonus depending on their performance and the financial success of the practice.

Associated Services

Independent Wealth Partners also provides accounting, tax and SMSF services. We may recommend these services as part of providing our financial planning services.
